

Prayers of the People (7th Sunday after Pentecost, Proper 10, Year A, 7-12-2026)

Lector: Start here!

Let us pray that the word of God shall be fertile in the Church and the world, saying: God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For churches throughout the world, that together we may harvest compassion in abundance of grace. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan. In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the clergy and people of St. Bartholomew's, Poway. In the Military Cycle of prayer, we pray for Naval Hospital, Camp Pendleton. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For this nation and for all who govern, that they go out in joy and be led back in peace. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For farmers, harvesters, and migrant workers, that those who work the land are valued and treated justly. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For an end to capitalism and consumerism that encourages devastation of our planet and ravage of its natural resources. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For those who suffer from failed harvests or hunger, conflict or war, loneliness or neglect, homelessness or unemployment, anxiety or hopelessness, that we notice and work to alter their plight and that they find comfort in your sustaining presence. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

OVER...

For this congregation, help us to live as those who have heard and received the word, that we may be bearers of good news and doers of good work. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For those afflicted by illness, grant them healing and lead us forward in finding new treatments and cures. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the departed, deliver them into the joy of your kingdom. Keep us ever mindful that whether we live or whether we die, we are yours and we are loved. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For our own intentions of petition and thanksgiving, which we now offer either silently or aloud...[10 seconds of sustained silence, please count in your head, 1001, 1002...1010]... God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Celebrant:

Blessed and praised are you, O God,
for the word of your mouth.

In your mercy,

listen to all who call to you in faith.

Plant us in good soil and let your word find root in our lives that we may bear fruit abundantly.

We pray in the name of your child Jesus, who lives with you in the power of the Spirit, forever. Amen.
